

Cozy studio in Buenos Aires

Via Benedetto Marcello, 38, Milano, MI, Italia

ID: F1061

Descrizione

Please note the apartment lift reach only the fourth floor.
To reach the fifth floor you will have to take the stairs.

The Location

This cosy studio apartment overlooks Corso Buenos Aires, one of the most famous shopping streets in Milan. This area also has plenty of public transport links: only 200 metres away are the Loreto and Lima metro stations where you can ride the red M1 line to the Duomo. There are also a number of restaurants on your doorstep that offer anything from a delicious dinner to a tasty aperitif.

Kitchen and Living Space

This attic opens onto a large open-plan living space furnished with a double bed, bedside tables and an open wardrobe complete with modern drawers, shelves and a clothes rail. Besides this, there is also a small reclining armchair. To the left of the entrance is the open kitchen that comes equipped with all the necessary utensils; a small kitchen table divides the sleeping area from the living space. Being on the top floor and enjoying large windows, this whole studio is very well lit.

Bathroom

The bathroom is characterised by its light colours that contrast with the darkness of the parquet which is found throughout the entire apartment; there is also a washing machine and all the necessary sanitary facilities including a shower bath that is enclosed by glass doors.

Note: please ask for confirmation of the presence of equipment, appliances and linen during your booking request.
